

Kematen Revisited

“I’LL BE BACK!” is what Rachel Hinnen said on May 31st, 2014, after 9 months as a teaching assistant at the HBLA Kematen. She kept her promise on December 18th, 2017 and was back at the HBLFA Tirol (different name, same place ☺), talking about experiences and knowledge she had gained after her goodbye 3 ½ years before. The class in favour was this year’s 5B, who enjoyed a communicative circle, a lot of funny stories and memories of the school year 2013/14.

But before that we found out in a conversation with our head Mr. Zecha that Rachel actually knows our new principal’s uncle, who lives in Salzburg. It’s a small world we’re living in...

Rachel managed to squeeze us in between her trips to the Czech Republic, Slovakia, skiing in Stubaital and snowshoeing in Navistal. And all this during a little break from her studies of Chinese medicine (to fight against Trump’s destruction of the already corrupt American health care system). What an “uber-woman”!!

Thanks for revisiting Kematen, Rachel!
