

ENGLISH ASSISTANT – NATIVE SPEAKER

ALEC PARRY

Hello! My name is Alec and I am the current English Teaching Assistant at the HBLFA Tirol – Kematzen.

I would like to thank all the staff for being so warm and welcoming during my first couple weeks, and the students, for showing interest, dedication, and engagement in class.

I am a proud Alaskan, and hail from Anchorage. I studied at a small liberal arts college (Colorado College) which also boasts a super good hockey team. I hope to pursue a PhD in German/Film Studies beginning next year.

During my free time I enjoy a good film, skiing, playing tennis and ice hockey. While in Tyrol you can find me hiking in the mountains, skiing, or failing to prepare my favorite Austrian dish, Knödel.

I look forward to a fantastic year in Kematzen, creating many memories, and instilling confidence and pride in the students' English speaking skills.

Danke! Alec Parry
